

I fear this petition potentially threatens the business and -- in the long term -- survival of local independent ISPs. I am personally using the services of one such independent provider, and am therefore very concerned by what they may become, should the petition be granted.

Sincerely,
Marcin Struzak